Artist's Bio

Win Albrecht is influenced by the mountains in Bavaria, the land of his birth. Win Albrecht became very interested in landscape painting at a very early age. He worked in watercolours and then later in oils. The beautiful waters surrounding Victoria have had a bearing in his later works.

As a member of the Aviation Museum in Sidney, he also loves to paint aviation subjects as well as sports; marine scenes; landscapes; wildlife; portraits and when not painting he does wood carvings.

He was mostly self taught but did study with Helen Rojak for a year and then with the late Friedrich Priddat.

His work has been shown at the Sooke Fine Arts Show, as well as in Sidney and Parksville,
